Mr. Hoar was in his fifty-second year, having been born in Worcester, Mass., in 1855. He received his preliminary education in the Worcester public schools and was graduated from Harvard College the degree of A. M. in 1878. In 1840 he was admitted to the bar in Worcester and has since practiced law in that city. Mr Hoar was deservedly popular in Worcester as well as with his fellow members of the House. In his native city he held the position of essistant district attorney for the middle district of Massachusetts from 1884 to 1887, and was member of the common council of Wor-oester from 1887 to 1891, inclusive, being its president during the last year. He was a private in the Massachusetts Con cord Artillery Company, Company C. Fifth Regiment Massachusetts Volunteer Militia from 1875 to 1878, was aid-de-camp on the staff of Gov.
